Stingray Pipeline Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 12, 1998.

Take notice that on March 9, 1998, Stingray Pipeline Company (Stingray) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, First Revised Sheet No. 4, to be effective April 8, 1998.

Stingray states that the purpose of the filing is to update Stingray's system map to reflect the addition and deletion of laterals.

Stingray requested a waiver of the Commission's Regulations to the extent necessary to permit the tariff sheet to become effective on April 8, 1998.

Stingray states that a copy of the filing has been mailed to Stingray's customers and interested state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Trunkline Gas Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 12, 1998.

Take notice that on March 9, 1998, Trunkline Gas Company (Trunkline) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, the tariff sheets listed in Appendix A attached to the filing, to be effective April 9, 1998.

Trunkline states that the purpose of this filing, made in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.204 of the Commission's Regulations, is to provide a clarification to Trunkline's no notice service under Rate Schedules NNS-1 and NNS-2. These revised tariff sheets clarify when and who should pay the transportation charge for delivery of gas into storage in the event of a change in the furthest upstream primary point of receipt on the Designated Transportation Service Agreement and in-field storage transfers.

Trunkline states that copies of this filing are being served on all affected customers and applicable state regulatory agencies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protest must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
